

Being an Independent Visitor is a unique and fun way to make a meaningful contribution.

It's one of the most rewarding things I've ever done.

Be a role model, volunteer and make a difference to a young person in care

We are looking for people to stand up, give back and change a life.

Becoming an Independent Visitor (IV) means being a consistent, trusted adult in the life of a young person in care – someone they can count on.

Just 2-3 hours a month can mean the world.
Time to chat, listen and have some fun.

Flexible hours

Training included - experience not essential

Reasonable expenses offered

Change a life. It might just change yours too.
