Hello,

a few comments on the polling stations for Over Ward in Knutsford.

It may be worth noting that Manor Park School is due to start an extension programme of works in the next year, and as such, access to the building is likely to be heavily restricted. I’d suggest liaising with the education building about how available the school will be.

St John’s Wood Millennium Centre is undergoing some potential changes, as such the building may also not be available. Again, a conversation with Education and CEC property may be wise.

As an additional comment, at the last elections for Europe, many people contacted me, saying they had lost their polling card, and did not know where they should be voting. A search on the CEC website did not provide any guidance. Is it at all possible to add a search facility to the website where you can enter your address (as polling numbers would be on the lost polling card) to find out which polling station voters need to attend?

thanks
